San Francisco

If you haven't already booked your last summer vacation yet, don't worry—we found the best affordable Labor Day getaways that will leave you recharged and with a lifetime of memories.

If you love great food, even better wine, and photo-worthy city strolls, taking advantage of San Francisco over Labor Day weekend is ideal for you. The Westin St. Francis boasts stunning views, cable car rides, loads of budget-friendly attractions. Booking a family package will give you a 25 percent savings on a second room, plus complimentary meals for kids ages 12 and under from the “Eat Well Menu for Kids” when adults eat too. Rates start at $249 per night, which are some of the best in this iconic city.
